Design Firm Wins Midwest Award

Thirty-five remodeling companies from the Midwest region and 231 nationally were honored at the ninth annual Chrysalis Awards for remodeling excellence on June 6 at the Cobb Galleria Centre in Atlanta. Design Construction Concepts, Ltd. in Northbrook, was named not only Illinois Remodeler of the Year but also the Midwest Remodeler of the Year in the contest, sponsored by "Qualified Remodeler" magazine, Andersen Windows, DuPont Tyvek Homewrap, and Parksite Plunkett-Webster.

Criteria for the award are based on the company's relationships with their customers; its contributions to professionalism in the remodeling industry; and its contributions to the community.

Design Construction Concepts, Ltd. is a full service architectural design and construction management company specializing in custom residential and light commercial projects. It has been serving Chicago's North Shore for more than 12 years. Partners Andy Poticha and Michael Menn have won nine Chrysalis Awards over the past five years.
